BEAUTIFUL, theory occasionally runs head-on into unpleasant fact, and when it does, the result is apt to be rather messy. This seldom happens more often anywhere than in the field of criminology.

'Dad' Farley Dies Thursday After 3 Week's of Illness

Proud Son of Erin Succumbs at Home of His Daughter, Age 92

WELL KNOWN HERE

Was Confidant and Beloved Friend of School Students

S. C. (Dad) Farley, proud son of Erin, died Thursday night at the age of 92.

Death came at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James Roberts, after an illness of three weeks.

For 21 years "Dad" had been custodian of Fair Park, confidant and beloved friend of all students of Hope schools. He was a favorite of the older folks too.

"Dad," as everyone called him, was born in Limerick, Ireland, on March 11, 1843. At the tender age of seven he came to the adopted land of many good Irishmen, where he has remained ever since—except for one visit to the old country in 1874.

"Dad" had been a citizen of Hope since 1905. His birthday falls on St. Patrick's Day and for the past several years the veteran gate-keeper has been presented with gifts on his day.

Despite his age he was active, up until three weeks ago when illness came upon him.

Funeral services were held at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon from the home of his daughter, Mrs. James Roberts, West Fourth street. Rev. E. C. Rule, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiated.

The body was conveyed to Baldwin cemetery for burial. Surviving is only one daughter.

Members of the Hope Fire Department acted as honorary pall bearers.

Active pallbearers were: Tom Bryant, Glen Carmichael, J. K. Sales, B. Ponder, Bill Garner and T. I. Boyett.

U. S. Orders Beer Tax Collections

Special Assessment Levied Against Dealers in Dry States

ATLANTA. — (AP) — Georgia who like to stoke the third with legally brewed beer or even legal liquor, faced a dry future as the federal government ordered the state's retail beer and liquor dealers to pay a special tax of $1000 immediately.

W. E. Page, collector of internal revenue, announced here that Washington officials had instructed him to collect the tax, a special assessment levied against dealers in dry states by the revenue act of 1926.

Mr. Page ordered all dealers to pay their tax at the nearest state office of the Internal Revenue Bureau.

Few dealers are believed to be in a position to pay, but many may meet the assessments and continue in business in self defense. Going out of business, Page said, will not exempt the dealers from payment of the tax, since all these in business now are required to pay.

Payment of the tax would allow the dealers to continue to operate until next July. The $1000 assessment is in addition to the $25 stamp tax liquor dealers and the $20 tax beer dealers paid in July of this year. The fact that dealers bought the stamps is considered evidence that they owe the new tax.

Persons engaged in either the beer or liquor business without paying the new assessment are subject to a fine of $1,000 or one year in prison, if convicted, and a 25 per cent addition to the tax.

Polite Bandits Rob Bank in Alabama

MILLFORD, Ala. — (AP) — Two unmasked bandits, working so politely that a customer thought them bank examiners, robbed the Millport State Bank of an undetermined amount of currency Thursday and escaped.

The men entered the bank during the noon hour and forced Miss Bertie Richards, assistant cashier, into the vault, and went about the business of robbing the institution.

A customer who entered the bank during the robbery said the two men were so business-like and polite that he thought them bank examiners.

5 Bobcat Players Ruled Ineligible; 1st Game Sept. 21

Coach Hammons Adds
El Dorado and Hamburg to Schedule

HARD GAMES AHEAD

Bobcats Working Hard for Opening Battle Here
With Hamburg

Coach Fay Hammons, starting his first year as dictator of the Hope High School football squad, received a hard blow Friday when five promising prospects were declared ineligible.

The five are: Jack Turner, Dick Moore, Cecil Houston, Buffalo Kesterson and Raymond Urban. The loss of Turner will probably be felt more than the others, as he was one of the team's most potent blocking backs.

Ineligibility of Kesterson, 100-pound guard and a newcomer to the Bobcats will be felt. All were ruled out on account of failing to pass required scholastic work during the last semester.

The head man of the Bobcats, however, is not downhearted.

"We're going to have a fighting football team, and one that I expect to break even, although we play all the top-notchers in the state with the exception of Pine Bluff and Fort Smith."

Two More Hard Teams

Coach Hammons announced Friday that he had added El Dorado and Hamburg to the schedule.

Hamburg, one of the outstanding teams in southern Arkansas, will come here on September 21 for the opening game. The change was made necessary when Lockesburg cancelled.

El Dorado will replace Broken Bow, Okla., on the schedule. The game is slated for October 19, and will be played here.

The Bobcats have been working out daily for the past two weeks with a large number of candidates reporting each day.

From indications the present squad has a good punch, are shifty on their feet and have a fine spirit.

Serious practice is expected to continue until about next Wednesday when the squad will taper off with signal drills for the opening battle against Hamburg.

Plans are under way to break all attendance records for the first game.

The revised schedule:

Sept. 21—Hamburg, here.

Sept. 28—Camden, here.

October 5—Fayette, here.

October 12—Hot Springs, here.

October 19—El Dorado, here.

October 26—Texarkana, here.

November 2—Arkadelphia, here.

November 9—Prescott, here.

November 16—Malvern, here.

November 23—Little Rock, here.

November 30—Nashville, there.

New Relief Plans for Drouth Aid

Conservation of Feed for Cattle Is Principal
Objective

LITTLE ROCK. — (AP) — New methods of handling emergency drouth relief will be discussed Friday, at the meeting of an ERA committee with T. Roy Reid, director of drouth relief for Arkansas.

The following members were named to the committee by W. R. Dyess, state ERA administrator: Floyd Sharp, ERA executive secretary; Edgar A. Hudson, in charge of rural rehabilitation; E. E. Castleberry, in charge of correspondence; and E. B. Whitaker, district extension agent.

One of the principal objectives of the new drouth relief setup will be the conservation of feed for cattle, Sharp said. A rural rehabilitation corporation will act as a holding company and will purchase surplus feed which it will resell to drouth victims at market price. Under the plan relief will be given in the form of advances which the client will repay in kind, or work, or in cash.

Dyess said that another phase of the program is the prospective shifting of farm families from sub-marginal lands to fertile acreages offering improved crop possibilities.

Center of W. J. Hamilton, former district employment manager at Fayetteville, to district manager at Little Rock, replacing E. C. Tipton, was announced Thursday.

Seed Loan Date Is Extended to October 15

J. H. Kent, field supervisor of the farm credit administration with his headquarters in Hope, announced on Friday that loans for purchase of seed for fall and winter crops had been extended to October 15.

The previous deadline for expiration of seed loans was September 15.

Arrested

His remark that "the real story of the Morro Castle disaster has not been told" brought about the arrest of George Alagna, shown as he testified in the New York inquiry. Alagna, second radio officer of the burned liner, is held for further questioning. He is from Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Food Loan Used in Arming Nation

Wheat Fund to China Is Used to Purchase Guns and Airplanes

WASHINGTON. — (AP) — Chairman Nye told in an interview Friday that the senate munitions committee had evidence indicating China used a $10,000,000 wheat loan from the United States last year to purchase guns and airplanes.

He made this statement as the committee prepared to conclude its investigation into the activities of the DuPont company munitions manufacturers.

Nye would not say from whom the munitions were supposed to have been purchased. Committee agents are studying the evidence, he added, preparatory to making it public.

The United States loaned China the $10,000,000 to finance purchase of American wheat and an additional $20,000,000 to buy cotton.

This was done to bolster up American foreign trade, to aid China feed her hungry millions and to help eliminate domestic farm surpluses.

Official Japanese circles have contended the wheat actually was converted into munitions. Meanwhile it was made known at Mexico, D. F., that Mexican ambassador to Washington had been instructed to protest to this government against bringing the names of President Rodriguez and other Mexican officials in to the hearings.

Testimony had been received—and denied on behalf of the president—that he had interested himself in war material sales and purchases.

It was the E. I. Du Pont de Nemours corporation, Vice President George Du Pont, testified Thursday, that saved the United States from a German colony during the World War, through its assistance to France and England and later to the United States.

Du Pont sharply denied that the war time profits of his company lay outside the field of patriotism, and declared most of them came from sales to the allies.

He did not believe the war department would be as efficient as private industry in furnishing war material in time of necessity.

Four More Bodies Found On Steamer

Charred Remains Taken
From Morro Castle—
Search Continues

ASBURY PARK, N. J. — (AP) — The charred remains of four victims of the Morro Castle fire were found as cooling decks made possible the first methodical search of the wrecked vessel.

Moving across sharply tilted decks, through a maze of dangling wires and other debris, the searching party covered all of the A and B decks and part of the C deck.

The quest of additional bodies will be continued Friday, officials of the Ward line which operated the ship, estimating roughly that there might be 10 more aboard.

Three of the victims found were in cabins on the A deck and officials of the line expressed belief they had been passengers. The fourth was in a passageway.

Governor of Georgia
Takes Steps to Prevent

PROVIDENCE, R. I. — (AP) — Governor Green declared after a conference with Adjutant General Herbert R. Dean Friday morning that the strike situation in the state had been so quiet overnight that "there will be no occasion for calling on the federal government for troops."

Carolina Quiet

CHARLOTTE. — (AP) — A clash between soldiers and pickets at Burlington, North Carolina, Friday in which five persons received bayonet wounds, marked an otherwise quiet strike front in the Carolinas.

Guard Troops Ready

ATLANTA, Ga. — (AP) — Governor Talmadge Friday instructed the state adjutant general to be ready with National Guard troops for strike duty.

"I want the flying squadron in Georgia to stop," he declared. "I do not want any one in Georgia interfering with those who want to work."

Peace Is Restored

PROVIDENCE, R. I. — (AP) — Peace, restored by bayonets, gas bombs and the combined efforts of police and national guardsmen, returned to Rhode Island's textile centers Friday even as plans were under way to summon aid from the United States army.

"Two deaths, six wounded and uncounted scores of injured clinaxed Thursday when national guardsmen in Woonsocket were all but beaten in their desperate struggle to restore order, was the total of casualties up to Thursday."

Thursday Governor Theodore Francis Green called the Rhode Island legislature into extraordinary session after a telephone conversation with President Roosevelt in which Green said the president told him he would arrange for federal troops for Rhode Island as soon as a formal request for them was received.

A resolution which would have declared a state of insurrection and would have called upon the federal government for aid was prepared but its introduction was deferred.

A bill to give the governor authority to close the mills at his discretion, when emergencies arose was passed by the Democratic-controlled lower house but was defeated 25 to 15 in the Republican-controlled senate. A second bill which would authorize the governor to spend $100,000 for an emergency increase in the state police forces was referred to a committee by the lower house of the assembly.

School Proposal to Be Discussed

Thorn's Solution to School
Problems Will Come
Before Meeting

LITTLE ROCK. — (AP) — State school officials canvassed the school bond refunding plan advanced by Representative Harvey B. Thorn of Pointsett county, with the likelihood that it will come up for discussion before the state board of education here on Monday. Thorn is slated for speaker of the 1934 house.

W. E. Phipps, commissioner of education, expressed the belief that congressional action would be necessary to enable the reconstruction finance corporation to finance the indebtedness of Arkansas schools.

Congressman D. D. Terry worked out such a measure at the last congress, Phipps recalled. A survey disclosed that only nine state including Arkansas would benefit from the measure and it failed of widespread support.

The state education chief expressed the hope that the legislature would be able to work out some plan for refunding school bonds and disposing of the kindred financial school problem. In the meantime he said no word had come from Washington that would indicate how soon funds might be available to Arkansas' request for $2,500,000 federal aid to operate schools.

Arkansas has a bonded school debt of approximately $20,000,000. Phipps said principal and interest charges require a large part of available revenues, in attributing the present financial plight of the schools to heavy debt charges.

War In Textile Zone

Clubs, bullets, and gas hurled back strikers and their sympathizers in the textile strike riot in Saylesville, R. I., and a national guardsman here is shown with club poised over one attacker who has been felled in the rush. Martial law was declared as more than 3000 mill workers and their supporters waged a savage conflict with the troopers.

Loss Is Heavy in China Flood

Undetermined Number of Persons Lose Their Lives

By the Associated Press

The angry waters of China's Yellow river, ripping out dikes with a power man has been unable to restrain, continued their murderous career Friday in the fertile valley which is known as the nation's granary.

Dispatches from sodden Honan province have not yet estimated the loss of life and vast property destruction in the current floods, but reports which have filtered out indicate another major calamity.

Reports from Kaifeng describe as desperate the plight of thousands of farmers in Honan and Southern Hope, where the river has reached a width of 30 miles. Dikes costing $1,000,000 a year to maintain have been swept aside. Farms were inundated to a depth of 10 feet and many persons were drowned.

More than a hundred million Chinese live on the plain across which the river winds and which according to legend is visited by major floods at 40 year intervals, with smaller ones in between.

The Yellow river has taken millions of lives since 2000 B. C. in the disastrous flood of 1887 a million, it was estimated, perished. So great was the suffering that unrest among the millions of refugees led to demonstrations against foreigners. The strangers were charged with China's misfortunes and the armies of the great powers were brought to the gates of Peking (now Peiping) to rescue diplomats besieged by the Boxers.

Blames Amnesia for His Marrying

HOT SPRINGS. — (AP) — Claiming that he was suffering with amnesia at the time of the ceremony and that he had a wife by a previous marriage, Charles B. Lee, Jr., of Charleston, W. Va., has filed a petition in Garland chancery court asking annulment of his marriage to Mrs. Alpha M. Lee.

Contesting the action and claiming Lee deserted her here two weeks after the marriage, Mrs. Lee filed an answer asking temporary alimony. She is also from West Virginia, but came here from California to meet Lee.

Three times married, Lee was divorced by his first wife here last November. He sets forth in his petition that he married the first of his two current wives in Florida last December.

Chancellor Saw W. Garratt has taken the case under advisement.

It Seems They Had a Right to Protest

FORT WORTH, Texas. — (AP) — One hundred boys are of one mind that the amnie of Texas Woman's College can't be changed any too soon.

These who have enrolled since the institution became co-educational, will confer with Dr. Tom W. Brabham, president Friday, and offer their ideas on a nappropiate name.

Dr. Brabham agrees with the boys that it's not right to continue and longer than necessary under a name which excludes attendance of any but females.

Rich Oklahoma Man Hurlled Out of Car in Texas

H. D. Snell Is Held Captive for $50,000 Ran-

REFUSED ABDUCTORS

Tortured by Choking,
Beatings and Having Pistols Poked at Him

SAN ANTONIO. — (AP) — Kidnaped for $50,000 ransom, H. D. Snell, wealthy Cordell, Okla., merchant and farmer, accidentally gained his liberty from two kidnapers Friday when he fell out of the automobile while it lurched along an unpaved road seven miles north of San Antonio.

The victim lay unconscious on the road for some time before he revived sufficiently to stumble along until he reached Alamo Heights where J. R. Embrie, a special policeman, saw him.

Snell said he was kidnaped at his home in Cordell, a town of 1800 population 10 miles north of Wichita Falls, Texas. He had $50 on his person which the kidnapers did not take under.

Despite torture by his kidnapers and two confederates who joined them for a time near Wichita Falls, Snell steadfastly refused to sign notes or checks for $50,000 to gain his freedom, he said.

The policeman brought Snell to police headquarters and Gus Jones, head of the United States Bureau of Investigation, was then called. Jones was one of the government agents who solved the kidnaping of Charles Urschel, wealthy Oklahoma City oil man.

Thrown to Road

Snell's escape came through unusual circumstances. He said he was lying in the tangle of the kidnapers' automobile with his eyes blindfolded and gagged in his mouth, but unbound himself when he became aware of the car's lurching progress over the unpaved road.

To keep his head from bumping on the floor, Snell reached blindly above until his hand felt the lever of the car door. The lever gave under his weight, and he groped and opened a sudden lurch of the car then threw him to the road.

Snell said he was not aware of what became of the kidnapers because he was knocked unconscious and remained that way for some time. When Ernie saw him, Snell was bleeding from cuts and abrasions on his face and head. His shirt was in shreds and his clothes generally disheveled.

Brinker Takes Witness Stand

Testifies That He Signed
"Confessions" Because
He Feared Life

TEXARKANA. — Edwin Brinker, on trial for the second time for the slaying of P. A. McSwain, took the stand in district court at New Boston Friday morning to testify that he had signed two confessions of the crime because he feared that he would be killed by officers grilling him if he did not do so.

It was the first time that Brinker has testified in the case. He was not placed on the stand in the former trial which resulted in a hung jury.

Brinker was the first witness called to the stand. Speaking deliberately and without flurry, Brinker declared, "I signed the two statements I gave the officers after being questioned all night because I believed that if I did not do so they would kill me, and I still believe it."

Brinker declared that the all night "truth session" which ended in his "confessions" began with only Rangers Buck Weaver and George Johnson present. "Chilcote, a police officer, came in and said 'we're going to find out who killed McSwain. You are the one who did it.' At that I jumped up out of the chair and Weaver shoved me back. Johnson hit me five or six times."

"Johnson said: 'You don't know who you are fooling with. We're Texas Rangers and I'll slap your head off in a minute.' Then three or four police came in. One of them would ask me a question. Before I could answer the question another one would ask me something else. They crowded about me and got right up into my face. They kept this up until about midnight. The longer they kept me the worse they got. Weaver and Johnson slapped me numbers a times."

"I heard Johnson say to Weaver, 'better let up a little bit, might kill him,' Brinker related.

Hensley Captured in Mississippi

Arkansas Fugitive Is Surprised by Officers
While Sleeping

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — (AP) — Memphis detectives and Mississippi officers armed with machine guns, effected the capture early Friday of Jack Hensley, escaped Arkansas convict.

Hensley was captured at a farm house near Grenada, Miss. He was sleeping with a pistol beside him as officers closed in.

Hensley escaped from Tucker farm last October with Leo Goin, who later was captured at Texarkana and sentenced to the penitentiary on a postoffice robbery charge.

The man captured Friday was under sentence of 10 years for a bank messenger holdup at Little Rock. He is also wanted throughout Tennessee for a series of robberies since his escape.

"No Dancing" at Monticello A. & M.

Enrolling Aggie Students
Also Warned About
"Uprisings"

MONTICELLO, Ark. — (AP) — The "no dancing" sign was hung out again at Monticello A. & M. College here as students tricked into Arkansas' second largest educational institution to register for the fall term.

Still standing by the gurs of strict discipline which inspired a campus strike last year and two subsequent unsuccessful movements to oust him from office, President Frank Horsfall of the college was backed up by his board in the promulgation of rules for the new semester.

Students arriving at the college today found this announcement posted: "The board takes a definite stand against dancing and hereby prohibits the students dancing either on or off the campus during the college session."

And the students will probably think twice before they start a strike about it, as a warning was sounded concerning "insubordination."

Highway Board Will Offer Bids

Four Small Construction Projects Will Finish September 14

LITTLE ROCK —(P)— The state highway commission will meet here Wednesday, September 14, to open bids on four small construction projects that will virtually complete last year's NHM program.

Two of the projects are on U. S. Highway 71; the first between Borden Gap and Dales in Scott county, and second the Gilliam underpass in Scott county.

The two other projects are grading and drainage between Crystal Springs and Silver, Yell county, and earthwork and paving for Donaldson underpass on Highway 67, Hot Springs county. The recently drafted $3,500,000 highway program will not be subject to action by the commission until it is approved by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads. Action of this bureau is expected within the next two weeks.

Construction of a viaduct at Van Buren, Crawford county, on highways 71 and 64, which was halted several weeks ago by an injunction obtained by a property owner, is slated to receive attention of the commission at the session.

HOBOS FIND FEDERAL EDEN; FREE BOARD, LITTLE WORK

Typical of hobo "Edens" now established in several sections of the country under federal relief direction is the one shown above, a 1934 model "jungle" at Fairfield, O. Its neat street lined with tents. At left is a new arrival, just after he had received his bed roll. Instead of a tin can camp along a railroad track, the hobos who tarry here find all the comforts of a home—electric lights, shower baths, barber shop. Cigarettes are free and so is clothing. The only drawback is that residents must work four six-hour days a week in return for food, lodging and incidentals, but the labor is light. When the itinerants are ready to move on, they are transported in government trucks to their next port of call.

Wade Kitchens Files Campaign Expenses

LITTLE ROCK —(P)— With one more remaining of the 30 days allowed for filing campaign expense accounts for the democratic primaries, the office of the secretary of state received a large number of statements Thursday night.

J. Oscar Humphrey, incumbent, defeated for re-nomination as state auditor by Charlie Parker, filed a statement showing expenditures amounting to $1747.68.

Glen D. Kennedy, candidate for state senator in the 27th district, filed expenditures of $99.02, and additional "lost weight" of 17 pounds.

Other expense accounts were filed by Tom Poe, for prosecutor, sixth district $4,391.57.

Fred Donahay for prosecutor, sixth district $3,956.83.

Horace E. Ruff for Congress, first district $43.29.

E. C. Blansett, for Congress, third district $1626.31.

H. B. Hardy, for state senator, 27th district, $186.

Elmo Carl Lee for State senator seventh district, $112.50.

David D. Terry for Congress fifth district, $2479.90.

John L. McClellan for Congress sixth district, $2,256.17.

Wade Kitchens for Congress seventh district, $1092.86.

Tom J. Cowan for state senator 26th district, $195.

FARM PRICES ADVANCE TOWARD PARITY, 1933-'34

Stacked coins show additional returns per crop unit to cooperating producers in benefit payments on domestic allotment or other portion of crop designated in contract

The real price (fair price plus benefit payments) that farmers are receiving for their allotted production of major farm products in terms of parity shows marked improvement. The figures along the parity price line of the above graph represent the amounts per unit farmers must receive, however, before their products will have as great exchange value as they did in the parity years, 1910-14. The increase in real prices since March 15, 1933, and the proportion of the real price farmers are receiving on designated portions of their crop in the form of benefit or rental payments under agricultural adjustment contracts are shown.

Court Refuses to Cut Piquett Bail

Petition Denied After Establishment of Dillinger as Gangster

CHICAGO —(P)— The government won its contention that John Dillinger was a gangster.

The average citizen probably more than suspected Dillinger, Homer Van Meter, et al, of the Hoosier hoodlum gang were robbers and killers but the government wanted to get it on judicial record through testimony.

His reason was to prevent reduction of bail for Louis Piquette, Dillinger lawyer, accused of harboring the late desperado and Van Meter, also deceased.

Piquette's attorneys argued the $50,000 bail on which Piquette was jailed was absurd, because, after all, Dillinger couldn't have been so bad since the government had only one charge against him—transportation of a stolen automobile—owned by Sheriff Lillian Holley and taken by Dillinger in his "wooden gun" escape from the Lake county jail at Crown Point, Ind. He was charged with driving it across the state line into Illinois.

Status Established
Federal Judge John P. Barnes, before the habeas corpus hearing in Piquette's behalf was scheduled, told the government once and for all to settle the status of the late Dillinger through its witnesses.

After hearing the judge declined to reduce the bail, dismissed habeas corpus proceedings and sent Piquette to his cell again. His lawyer announced he would appeal.

The federal witnesses gave the judge a first hand version of the gang's activities.

Girl Testifies
Marie Conforti, girl friend of Van Meter's who has pleaded guilty to harboring the gangster, said she was with the gang at the Little Bohemia resort in Northern Wisconsin when the outlaws escaped a federal police trap in which Agent W. Carter Baum and a CCC worker were killed.

She identified as among those present, Dillinger, Van Meter, George (Baby Face) Nelson, Tommy Carroll, John Hamilton and Pat Riley.

Riley is under arrest at St. Paul, Nelson is a large, Hamilton alternately reported dead or at large and the rest the victims of peace officer's bullets.

U. S. May Escape Additional Taxes

Chairman Harrison Tells President New Levies Are Unlikely

HYDE PARK, N. Y. —(P)—After a general interview with President Roosevelt of the prospective legislative program next session, Chairman Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, of the Senate Finance Committee said he believed a new tax bill would not be Held as Aide Of Van Meter

Suspected of harboring Homer Van Meter, slain Dillinger gangster, Opal Melica, also known as Mulligan, above, was arrested by St. Paul, Minn., police. A waitress, she is said to be a one-time sweetheart of Albert Kelly, a minor member of the outlaw's shattered gang.

Harrison, called to the summer White House by the president, expressed confidence over the business and agricultural outlook and said that it present trends continued it might be possible even to moderate some of the heavy federal relief expenditures although increased building funds probably would be needed.

More money for building projects was urged upon the president in an earlier conference by Senator King, Democrat, Utah, who favored a partial revival of civil works to get away from outright grants to the unemployed this winter, a stepping up of federal purchases of silver and a more liberal credit policy on the part of the RFC.

Harrison, chairman of the Finance Committee, which handles all tax and tariff legislation said:

"Treasury receipts are coming in nicely and are showing an enormous increase. With the general pickup, especially in agriculture, we are hopeful that the receipts will continue to increase."

Harrison would not say whether the special excise taxes now bringing in around $200,000,000 would be continued after they expire, some next January and others at the end of the current fiscal year. These taxes include gasoline, bank checks and a score of other excise levies.

Pitches Shutout for Girl Friend

Schoolboy Rowe Celebrates the Arrival of His Fiancee

DETROIT —(P)— With "the girl from back home" looking on, Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe, set the Washington Senators down with seven scattered hits, enabling the Tigers to take the series opener 2 to 0.

The girl was Edna Mae Skinner, Rowe's fiancee from El Dorado, Ark. In honor of her arrival Rowe chalked up his 23rd victory of the season.

Both the Tiger runs were scored in the eighth inning during a rally which blasted Wally Stewart from the mound. White beat out a punt. Rowe sacrificed him to second. After Fox popped to Kerr, Cochrane rapped out a double to score White and Charley Gehring came through with a single to score Cochrane.

A special batting practice, which Manager Cochrane ordered for this morning apparently bore fruit in Thursday's game, every player but Gehring getting hits. Gehring got three hits in four trips to the plate while White got two hits in three trips up.

Rowe weakened momentarily in the ninth when he allowed Sewell to triple with two out, but rallied quickly and fanned Bludge to end the game.

Limit On Appropriations by State Legislature Sought in Amendment

BY HENRY N. DORRIS
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

LITTLE ROCK —(P)—Designed by its sponsor to "prevent the state ever destroying itself" proposed amendment No. 19 would limit legislative appropriations and state expenditures for governmental expenses to $2,500,000 for each biennium.

One of two measures sponsored by Governor Faircliff, proposed amendment No. 19 would supplement the language of article 5 of the constitution of 1874 so as to prevent the legislature, except by a three-fourths vote of its elected membership, obligating the state from more than $2,500,000 for any given two-year period.

The limit proposed to be fixed would not include appropriations for schools, highways, Confederate pensions and debt service. Since the revenues for these purposes exceed by $10,000,000 the maximum amount allowable under the amendment for regular governmental expenditures.

The proposed amendment seeks another limitation on the legislature closely akin to the first. It provides that the general assembly shall make no appropriations until after the general appropriations bill—containing the allowances for the constitutional and other necessary state government expenses—has been passed.

This would prevent a legislature opposed to the constitutional officers, from using up the $2,500,000 biennial expense allotment before providing for the prime governmental purposes, such as the executive branch, supreme and circuit courts.

A third purpose is that of prohibiting either house of the legislature from incurring an expense without first appropriating for it by act. This obviously aims at the practice of legislatures prior to 1933 of creating legislative jobs and incurring "gift" expenses by resolution. The amendment, if adopted, is self-executing and would become effective the moment the vote is certified.

Cattle Buying Is Placed On Budget

Will Operate on Restricted Basis Until September 19

WASHINGTON —(P)— Farm Administration's drought relief division said it had ordered government purchase of cattle in the drought areas placed upon a budget basis between now and September 19.

Heretofore, buying has been unrestricted. It was explained that a new policy had been placed in effect by Colonel Philip Murphy, drought relief head, to pave the way for definite accounting September 19 of just where the program stands as to available funds.

Plans for purchases beyond September 19 have not yet been completed, but it was made clear that there was no present intention of amending the program. Each state affected will have a specified quota to be bought between now and September 19. Texas quota is 105,000 head, or roughly, 10,000 head a day.

The benefits many women obtain from Cardui give them great confidence in it. "I have four children," writes Mrs. J. L. Norred, of Lagrange, Ga. Cardui did more to allay the nausea at these times than anything I have ever used. I am in very good health and believe Cardui did a lot of it." Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. origin and history of all religious symbolism and ritual, we should find that originally the form had meaning and reality for the one who used it; but the tendency is constantly for such forms to lose their original significance or reality.

What was originally done with deep sincerity and meaning becomes simply a lifeless ritual or practice.

Nor is that the worst side of the matter. Often regard for the forms, and the ritual observances of religious habit becomes far more insistent than the moral and spiritual realities, and even men of religion will have hate and violence toward one another in their controversies and quarrels over matters of form rather than reality.

The illustrations in Scripture are surely strongly in mind. One recalls how the formal literal observance of the Sabbath had become so exaggerated in the minds of certain bigots that they would have been willing even to kill Jesus because he healed the sick and disabled upon the Sabbath day.

An illustration in more modern times is the story, probably fictitious, of pirates who attacked a ship, murdered the crew, and were indulging in revelry and wastrel when they were suddenly conscience stricken, realizing that they were eating meat on Friday. Such an illustration is extreme, but it signifies what has happened very widely in a lesser way.

This was the condition in Israel of Isaiah's time. The people had become much more concerned about outward observance than upon the vital matters of truth and honesty and justice, and it was under these circumstances that Isaiah uttered the plain words of our lesson. They strike home to mind and conscience with keen and startling reality.

Isaiah says that religion does not consist in outward reverence and observance of certain forms. He desires to dramatize the Almighty and to put on the lips of God the command for real cleanliness of life and the denunciation of formal profession of religion on the part of those whose hands are dripping with the blood of injustice.

How strikingly the words apply to our own age! "Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil; learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed; judge the fatherless; plead for the widow."

The lesson does not end, however, on the note of denunciation and command. Deeper in the religion of a God of love and mercy is the note of appeal and the assurance that there is forgiveness.

"Come now, and let us reason together," said the Lord: "Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool."

Here we have set before us the profound realities of religion in their height and in their depth.

The teaching of the lesson is not that oblations and sacrifices are necessarily vain, nor that forms and symbols in religion are altogether to be avoided. These things are perhaps in some measure matters of temperament and inherent attitude on the part of the worshipper.

The teaching, however, is clear and plain that, where the deeper realities of morality and spirituality are lacking, form and ritual can have no meaning.

A statement of Marco Polo's required 600 years to prove. He discovered the great sheep now known as Ovis Foli, but the world believed that no such animal existed until 600 years later.

Eagles are in disrepute in Alaska because of the complaints from salmon fisheries that the birds destroy an enormous amount of the salmon every year.

"I Thought You Had an ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR!"

"An electric refrigerator? We did have one, and I'm glad George isn't home to hear you. It's a touchy matter with him!"

"George gave me the best one made last Christmas and I was thrilled to pieces for a while. But it wasn't four days till I noticed the food didn't taste as fresh as it used to. You know—everything in the refrigerator tasted like everything else! George started kicking like a mule about the butter, the salads, even the taste of the ice cubes themselves. We had a service man out—he couldn't find a thing wrong—said we'd get used to it like everyone else did. Can you imagine?"

"Well, we're back to ice again, thank goodness. George says it air-conditions our food—carries the odors down the drain. I'm no scientist—all I know is our food tastes fresher and stays fresher longer!"
